PRIVACY POLICY

1. Introduction to the Website of CBA Studio Legale e Tributario

Welcome to the website of CBA Studio Legale e Tributario.

This Privacy Policy (the "Privacy Policy") applies to the personal data (the "Data") of each user (the "User") processed by CBA Studio Legale e Tributario ("CBA" or the "Controller") through this website (the "Website").

This Privacy Policy applies solely to the Website and not to other websites to which the User may be redirected via links contained within the Website. Such links may connect to portals or IT systems managed by third parties over which CBA has no control and for which it assumes no responsibility as to ownership, methods, or purposes of data processing.

This Privacy Policy is governed by Italian law and by Regulation (EU) 2016/679 (the "GDPR"), which regulates the processing of personal data by any individual or entity established within the European Union and ensures that such processing respects the rights, fundamental freedoms, and dignity of the data subject, with particular regard to confidentiality, personal identity, and the right to data protection.

This Privacy Policy may be amended or updated, in whole or in part, to reflect changes in applicable legislation. Any amendments or updates will become binding as soon as they are published on the Website.

2. Data Controller, Data Processors and Data Protection Officer

The Data Controller is CBA Studio Legale e Tributario ("CBA" or the "Controller"), with registered office in Milan (MI), Corso Europa no. 15, VAT no. IT08122350153.

The Controller has appointed a Data Protection Officer (DPO), who may be contacted by e-mail at dpo@cbalex.com or by telephone at +39 02 778061.

3. Entities that may process the User's Data

CBA may engage third parties to process the User's Data. Such parties are carefully selected based on their experience, capability, and reliability, and are required to ensure full compliance with applicable data protection laws, including the implementation of adequate security measures.

These third parties are appointed by CBA as data processors, depending on the specific tasks assigned to them, and they process the Data strictly in accordance with CBA's instructions and under its supervision.

4. Purpose of Processing

Browsing the Website is free and does not require authentication credentials.

The User may be asked to provide Data (such as personal details and e-mail address) in specific sections of the Website ("Download and Newsletter", "Events" and "Careers") where registration is required. Each of these sections includes a dedicated privacy notice describing in detail how Data will be processed.

If Users send e-mails to any of CBA's office addresses, the Data will be processed in accordance with the applicable "Contacts" privacy notice.

The legal basis for processing the Data is the User's consent, given by submitting personal information through the relevant form or by sending e-mails to the addresses indicated in the Contacts section.

5. Methods and Duration of Processing

The processing of Data is carried out mainly through electronic means by CBA and by other parties who have been appropriately selected for their reliability and competence and who perform activities instrumental to the use and maintenance of the Website.

The Data will not be disclosed to third parties, except where disclosure is required by law or necessary to comply with legal obligations that do not require the data subject's consent.

The data retention periods applicable to each type of processing are specified in the relevant privacy notices available in the sections "Download and Newsletter", "Careers", "Events", and "Contacts".
